

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Jobs, Tourism, Science and Innovation (JTISI) is Western Australia's lead agency for economic development, international trade and investment, and tourism. It also leads the promotion and development of the defence, international education, science, and innovation sectors in Western Australia. The department offers excellent career prospects in a supportive and stimulating environment.

JTISI is staffed by technical experts in economics, law, resources, governance, policy, environment, heritage, project management, investment attraction and many other fields that contribute to developing economic supports for the future of the Western Australian economy.

Our staff can:

- negotiate and guide agreements made between the government and major project (mainly resource) proponents.
- identify, plan, and develop Strategic Industrial Areas for use by strategic and heavy industry which generates significant investment and employment for the State.
- promote Western Australia's defence sector capability and capacity to deliver the nation's future shipbuilding and submarine programs.
- advise government internally on economic policy.
- project manage approvals in land tenure, native title and heritage, environment and planning for major government infrastructure initiatives.
- support programs that celebrate the achievements of Western Australia's science community.
- assist local businesses to participate in major Western Australian markets, and compete for State Government contracts.
- support and accelerate new and emerging businesses to create Western Australian jobs.
- support Western Australia's export industries through our global offices and our trade and investment division, which specialise in linking like-minded international investors with real opportunities in Western Australia.

The Department of Jobs, Tourism, Science and Innovation comprises the Western Australian Tourism Commission and the following operational divisions:

- Strategy and International Engagement; which provides strategic policy advice on state development issues and leads initiatives for significant investment in large and complex projects in Western Australia, supports a network of international offices to promote Western Australia and its industries and encourages strategic investment and trade opportunities. It includes the following: Strategic Policy, Invest and Trade Western Australia, International Engagement and the Overseas Offices.
- Resources and Project Facilitation; which leads and assists the development and expansion of the State's resources and industry sectors, strategic industrial land investment and major infrastructure projects. It includes Project Facilitation, Strategic Projects and Infrastructure and Land Planning.
- Industry, Science and Innovation; which collaborates with industry, government, research and innovation sectors to diversify the economy and create jobs through improved local industry capabilities and participation. It also promotes WA's defence and science industries and innovation capability and capacity. It includes Industry Development, Defence West and Science and Innovation.
- Corporate Services – provides professional advice and services across JTISI to support management and staff in the delivery of the agency's and government objectives.
- Legal Services – provides and coordinates specialist legal advice across the department.
